—Disgusted prospectors are returning from Alaska.

—Hon. W. E. F. Deal was in the City yesterday. He thinks the Oregon returns are all out of shape.

—Next time the Democrats hold a national convention they will try to fix it so as to come off just after the State election in Kentucky.

—It is thought that the Democrats will straddle the tariff issue by nominating both a Free Trader and a Protectionist. Voters can then take their choice.

Little Folks.

Little folks are generally very bright and wide awake. A great big dog was roaming about the yard muzzled, when a little girl rushed into the house in terror. Her sister, younger but more valiant, coolly surveyed the situation, and reassured her by saying, "He can't bite, he's got on his bustle." Although the little miss had a wrong impression of how to adjust the article in question, she was always right when she came down to Oleovich Bros., store, for what ever was wanted in the house. All should do the same.

For Groceries, Dry Goods, Shoes or Carpets, Underwear, Hats and Fancy Goods, go to Oleovich Bros., as the only place where best goods are offered at such low prices.

THE 4th. OF JULY.

Reasons Why Carson Should Give her Neighbors a Chance.

There has been considerable discussion of late over the propriety of celebrating the 4th. of July in Carson City.

Those who oppose the celebration, do so on the ground that quite a large sum of money has already been subscribed toward the District Fair and that an attempt to raise more money for the 4th. of July celebration would result in a failure and a very indifferent celebration. The idea seems to prevail that Ormsby county had better concentrate its energies on the District Fair so as to make it a success rather than to try for both the Fourth of July and the Fair.

If the Virginians are allowed to have an old fashion Fourth of July celebration which the Carson people can attend, it will create a general good feeling along the ledge and result in a good attendance here in October.

This is the general talk here and there seems to be considerable practical good sense in it.

In a few days some parties propose going round the city with petition to the Governor asking that he revoke the order, calling the military companies to the Capitol and allowing him to designate some other place for the parade.

The general plan seems to be to have Reno and Carson hold their annual Fairs and allow Virginia in the future to do the big celebrating on the Fourth of July.

Card from V. B. Cross.

To the editor of the APPEAL: I noticed in a recent issue of the APPEAL that a Reno plasterer named Hank is advertising that prior to his arrival here there were no regular qualified plasterers in the City. I will inform the public that for some years Mr. Nudge Mara and myself have been in the business of plastering and we have given the most perfect satisfaction wherever we have worked.

For the quality of our work we have simply to refer the readers of the APPEAL to hundreds of our patrons in this City.

We will at the same time state that we do not propose to do cheap work of any kind. Our work is made to stand and it invariably does stand when once put up.

We hope that such parties as want cheap Reno work, will try it and they will soon be able to get a fair idea of how their work stands compared with work for which a fair rate is charged.

Respectfully
 V. B. Cross.

Funeral Notice.

DIED.—At Clear Creek, June, 8th., 1888, Mary Glagher, aged 65 years.

Funeral will take place on Friday June 8th., at 2 p. m. from the Catholic Church. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

Knew it was Loaded.

Just before the editor of the APPEAL went to San Francisco for a short trip he loaded up the editorial desk with a large supply of postage stamps and lead pencils.

He then left the paper in charge of Major Dennis for a few days and not a lead pencil or postage stamp remains.

This is evidently our year not to look out for No. 1.

—Mrs. H. S. Shaw, wife of the editor of the Englewood Star, and sister of the writer, has been nominated School Trustee in Englewood, Cal.

The lady is getting along in politics somewhat faster than this scribe.

When he attempted to run for the same office in this City some years ago some lively connubiator locked our ticket up in a burglar proof safe and not one struck the street until 5:30 p. m.

—The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a box of cherries from Cap. Moger, Newcastle.

The Newcastle fruit company is covering a larger territory every year, and sells nothing but the best.

—Lunches, cool beer and the latest political news at Cap. Avery's.

TAHOE ITEMS.

[From the Tourist.]

—One Tahoe fisherman, states that he has caught upwards of two thousand pounds of trout during the last three months.

—Wells, Fargo & Co., has appointed Mr. G. M. L. Comstock as their agent at Tallac, and making that point an office during the season. It will prove of much convenience to his guests.

—Mr. Short has opened his store at Tahoe city, and placed Mr. W. Peters in charge. Mr. Peters by his close attention to business, and kindly qualities, has not only won the confidence of his employers but the esteem of his many friends as well. We wish him success.

—The dairymen are gradually driving their stock from the foothills, where they passed the Winter months, to the green pastures of the mountain's valleys, and remaining there until the first storm of the Winter warns them to seek a lower altitude. So accustomed have the cattle become to this yearly migration, that when the time comes for the departure, no urging is required to get them started and instances have been noted of their leaving before their owners were ready for them to do so.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

—The Auburn 8-year-old boy burglar and his mother and sister have been held for trial.

—A reward of $1,000 is offered for the apprehension of the two men who assaulted Miss Lizzie Waughtel near Winters.

—Since the decision by the Supreme Court that the Wright law is valid irrigation schemes are going ahead with a boom in Stanislaus county.

—Dr. O. V. Gay, arrested at San Diego on a charge of causing the death of John Parker by administering a dose which killed him, has been discharged.

—A divorce case, in which the husband acknowledged that he had contributed for the support of his family during the past seven years the sum of $7, was heard in a Sacramento court Tuesday.

—The Canadian Pacific steamship Zambesi, eighteen days from Yokohama, arrived off Victoria Tuesday night. She left for Vancouver at midnight. She had 700 Chinese and a large list of first-class passengers.

"Rock of Ages" in Hawthorne.

In addition to the pay rock recently discovered about Hawthorne, they also have the "Rock of Ages." The Hawthorne Bulletin in describing an amateur performance says:

A tableau followed which seemed to hold the spectators spellbound. Lillie Miller was clinging to a huge cross covered with flowers. Hazel Knapp, who is an angelic little child, stood on an elevated platform and pointed upward, as if trying to tell the weary one that she was not clinging to the Rock of Ages in vain. The tableau was accompanied by the singing of the hymn from behind the scenes, and was in every respect perfect.

The Babies Cry For It.

And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicines. It strengthens the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, and Bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy activity. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, Agent.

Prompt Action.

H. Sample, Recorder of Nevada Lodge, No. 5, A. O. U. W., has received a warrant on the Grand Receiver of the Jurisdiction of Nevada, for $2,000, due Julia Reese, widow of Phil. Reese, of which he was a member.—Reno Journal.

New Restaurant.

Chas. Tarry will re-open the Sweeney restaurant on Tuesday next. He has refitted the whole establishment, and being an expert caterer will superintend the cuisine. Meal tickets for sale.

—The general idea out in Esmeralda county is that Doc Callison's victim was a mighty good man but rather slow on the pull.
